POETRY.

Come With Us "Boys in Blue."

AIR—"Drink to me only."

Come with us, noble "boys in blue!"
We need your aid once more!
Around our Grant, so brave and true,
Come as in days of yore,
Help "reconstruct" this mighty land
You nobly helped to save!
Work with us now with heart and hand,
Where'er our flag shall wave!

CHORUS—
Oh! boys, we'll rally for U. S. G.,
Oh! boys, we'll rally for U. S. G.,
Oh! boys, we'll rally for U. S. G.,
Fighting it out, fighting it out,
On this the Union line!

Seymour shall have a grand defeat!
Democracy shall die!
Old Andy soon will leave his seat,
Yet none of us will sigh!
Help re unite the States again,
Bring specie payment back!
Come with us, boys, all traitors then
Will take the backward track!—C. O.

Work with us as you fought and won!
Beware of party snares!
Work till the noble work is done,
Hushed all the nation's cares!
Far up Salt River send our foes!
Come with our Grant—so true;
We're going to oust our ancient "Mose"—
Yes, and he feels quite blue.—CHO.

Peace o'er our land shall spread her wings,
The stars shall all come in!
O'er all the land our watchword rings,
Our cause shall surely win!
Our Colfax, statesman, tried and true,
Our Grant the firm and brave,—
These are our leaders, boys in blue,
Help us the land to save!—CHO.

Who are Voters.

In order to vote, a citizen must have resided in this State three months, and in the ward or township ten days.

Every voter must vote in the particular ward or township where he resides. A man's residence is where his house and family are. If an unmarried man, his residence is where he takes his meals.

An alien who lived in this State on the first day of January, 1850, can vote, if he has taken out his first papers six months before the election. But any alien who did not reside in this State in 1850, must have lived in the State two years and six months, and have taken out his papers six months before the election in order to vote. Let it be understood, that no alien who has come into the State since 1850 can vote, unless he has resided in the State two years and six months, and, in addition to this, has taken out his first papers six months previous to the election.

Soldiers, honorably discharged from the army, who are aliens, can take out full naturalization papers at any time, and then vote, provided they have resided three months in the State and ten days in the ward or town before the election, the same as though they had always been citizens.

Political Righteousness.

John Bright said in a recent speech that he was "a preacher of political righteousness." Who ever heard of such righteousness in this country?—We need nothing half so much, in order to secure to the people North and South their just rights. Humanity pleads for so much righteousness, at least.

It is appalling in this country to see a great party endeavoring to maintain itself on a platform of false principles and issues. Such is the Democratic party. It does not represent Democracy; for long ago the men who co'd not belong to the Democratic party because they were Democrats, as Mr. Beecher once remarked, have left the ranks. It is seeking to regain its lost prestage by the most unscrupulous double dealing. How can we understand it that any body of men can go before the people on such an issue?—They have lost faith in humanity, national honor, and national justice.—Their appeals are to prejudice, not truth. They stir the lower passions of men, and abuse their higher and moral instincts. The expect to succeed, if at all, by fraud and mendacity. It is certainly strange, in a land like ours, that any party with such an infamous record, so treasonable in its intents, so false to every principle of national honor and virtue, could have the shadow of a hope of receiving the support of any solid, respectable men.

What we need is righteousness in our platforms; to heed the cry of the needy and the thousands of persecuted loyalists of the South who are praying us for security and liberty. The flag that floats above them should have no respect to color. We should keep before the people the great ideas for which we have struggled, and show the flagrant wickedness of pouring out blood and treasure in vain. We sho'd hold the making treason respectable an outrage and a crime.

To promulgate such a gospel requires moral courage. More of this is needed. What is right we must contend for. Frederick Douglass has said, "One with God is a majority." When truth and justice are on our side, we are always in the majority. What need of a fawning, Seymourizing policy, if the soul is conscious of uprightness? To be brave, to speak out and expose evil, to publish liberty as an inherent American right, to scorn the sycophants barking at the heels of progress, to dare to do whatever the voices of divine sympathy and reason council us to do—this is to have a spirit equal to the age in which we live. Such moral courage is rarely found. Once in an age a Luther appears ready to ride into Leipsic though it rains Duke Georges!

Political righteousness is based also on national honor. Repudiation must be accounted a theft. So many bondholders as we find are widows in affliction, or soldiers scarred with wounds, or hardworking laborers, who, in the time of the nation's peril came to the rescue of the Government, and gave their savings to the cause, should never be allowed to suffer a farthing's loss. Nor should any true patriot shrink from the feeling of disgrace that would strike him through to have it go abroad that the American nation were a race of repudiators!

Above all the cause is righteous, if we fight it out on the line of national justice. Justice is the talismanic word of the times! In the words of Edmund Burke, "It is the great standing policy of civil society." After the scenes of New Orleans, and the one thousand murders—cruel murders—in Texas since the close of the war, no one can say that the question of justice is asphynx question to us. It is clear that the national arm does not reach where the national flag floats! What a demon of revenge and lawlessness to be exoreised! This is the work. Andrew Johnson has not done it. Let the right man be put in the Executive chair, who will do it. And let us elect a courageous Congress to assist him.—Carlyle says: "As many men as there are in a nation who withal see Heaven's invincible justice, and known to be on earth also omnipotent, so many men there are who stand between a nation and perdition!"—Chicago Republican.

Seymour In 1861.

Gov. Seymour, in 1861, was unable to decide whether successful rebellion or successful coercion would be the greater calamity. Grant about that that time drew his sword and proposed to cut the knot. Seymour in 1863, as you remember, came to New York, derided our disappointment, sneered at our reverses and proclaimed that the doctrine of public necessity was as good a doctrine for a mob as for a Government Then he pointed to his mob, and defied Lincoln to reinforce our decimated armies by conscription. At that same moment Grant was before Vicksburg, toiling day and night through 40 days and 40 nights, to achieve what he finally did achieve, one of the greatest victories of modern warfare. [Applause.] When asked how long he would stay before Vicksburg, he made a very short speech; he said: "I shall stay till I take it."—[Applause.] Seymour went to Chicago, and his reflections and speeches about the war and about the National Government culminated in the resolution passed by that Convention when he and his associates declared that the war was failure. But there were some brave men in the field who were resolved that it should not be a failure. So, while Seymour snarled at the draft and snivelled over our taxes, Farragut, lashed to the maintop of his flagship destroyed the last of the Rebel fleet in the Gulf. [Applause.] Thomas—not ad interim, but the real Thomas [laughter]—attended to Hood's army before Nashville. Sherman marched to the Valley of the Shenandoah [applause,] and Grant, silent and stern, through battle and siege, toiled night and day through carnage and death to victory and peace. Grant is a man of work. While Seymour makes speeches Grant fights battles and wins victories.—While Seymour suggests compromises and cessation of hostilities, and talk with the enemy, Grant demands unconditional surrender. Grant's charcharacter must be sought for in his acts; Seymour in what he has not done. Grant is presented as a candidate for the Presidency of the United States not for any service he has rendered to the party, not as a politician, but as the savior of his country, and for the services he has rendered to America. My friends, let me ask you to remember the brave men who have been sacrificed that we may have the privilege here to-night of organizing, and resolving that we will preserve the Union they defended in war. Think of them, strewn in every vally, and along every hill-side throughout the South. Listen to the voices as the heaving sod lifts that they may speak to us. They tell us: comrades, brothers, defend and preserve the Union that we died to save.—Gen. Logan.

The late Daniel S. Dickenson knew Horatio Seymour well. In a speech at the Coooper Institute on October 8, 1862, he spoke thus concerning him:

When the most atrocious conspiracy which ever desecrated earth found development in an assault upon the National flag at Sumpter, and in efforts to massacre a half-starved garrison, placed them in a time of profound peace, according to uniform usage, for no other offense than asserting the supremacy of their country's Constitution, and giving to the breeze as emblematical thereof, the glorious Stars and Stripes of their fathers—when the brave volunteers who were hurrying to the defense of our nation's capital, to save it from mob rule and rebellion, and conflagration, were bleeding by traitorous hands—when strong men trembled, when women wept, and children instinctively clung closer to the maternal bosom—when all communication between the loyal States and the cadital was cut off by rebellious forces—when the President of the United States had then recently reached the seat of Government, where duty called him, by a circuitous and an unusual route, and in disguise, to escape the hand of the assassin, and when our land was filled with excitement and consternation and alarm—when "shricked the timid and stood still the brave," and the confiding masses looked about to see who were the men for the crisis, among the citizens of the Empire State, who had borne a part in public affairs, and who were were naturally looked up to as exemplars in such a crisis, he (Horatio Seymour,) hied himself away upon the double-quick in the opposite direction, and for nearly half a year hid himself among the lakes and rivers and romantic woodlands and inland towns of Wisconsin; and his tongue was silent on the subject of denouncing the rebellion as those of the murdered volunteers, whose "ghosts walked unrevenged among us." There we may suppose he basked and balenced, and watched and waited, and turned and twisted, [laughter,] until autumn, when a small knot of defunct, defeated, and despicable politicians, who had for years hung upon the subsistence department of the Democratic party in this state, came to his relief by entering the field. They borrowed without leave the honorable name of Democracy, under which to perpetrate their covert treason, as the hypocrite

"Stole the livery of the court of Heaven
To serve the devil in."

This disgraceful and disloyal record stands out as the doings of men too solid in political depravity to be gifted with ordinary instincts, and too regardless of the popular will to be mindful of shame; and the defeat they experienced at the hands of the people, sho'd serve as a warning to trimmers and traitors and paricides and ingrates, through all future time.

This movement drew the secluded one from his hiding place, and he came forth, with all the courage of him who, in a conflict with his wife, being driven under the bed, while remaining thus ensconsed, declared, that whether she consented or not, he would look out through a knot-hole in the clap-boards, so long as he had the spirit of a man! [Great and repeated laughter and applause.] He entered the political canvass, on the 21st of October, 1861, a few days before the election, made a speech, the burdon of which was an apology for the rebellion, and a condemnation of the Administration for having meted out the rigor of martial law to those in arms against the Government. Though abounding with flimsy disguises and sophistical generalities, it contained one point worthy of not only notice, but of the severest reprehension, and here it is:

"If it is true that slavery must be abolished to save the Union, then the people of the South should be allowed to withdraw themselves from the Government which cannot give them the protection guaranteed by its terms."

What! Place this glorious Union—the heritage of human hope—this asylum for the world's weary pilgrim—this refuge for the oppressed of earth, in the scale of being beneath the black and bloated and bloody—the corrupt and corrupting—the stultified and stultifying institution of slavery! No! Sooner than see the Union severed, let not only the institution of slavery perish whenever and wherever it can be found, but let the habitations that have known it perish with it, and be known no more forever. [Tremendous and long continued applause. "That's so." "That's the talk." Three cheers.] And yet this returning fugitive from patriotism proclaims as his creed, in effect if not in terms, that if either the Union or slavery must be destroyed it must be the Union. And the name of this man is Horatio Seymour. [Sensation.]

We hope the Democracy will admire the portrait presented by the Charleston Mercury, and will act wisely in the case, and leave the group of traitors to the contempt they deserve:

From the "Charleston Mercury."

Our women are all conservative, moral, religious, and sensitively modest, and abhor the North for its infidelity, gross immortality, licentiousness, anarchy, and agrarianism. 'Tis they and the clergy who lend and direct the disunion movement. It is a gross mistake to suppose that Abolition alone is the cause of dissension between the North and the South. The Cavaliers, Jacobites, and Huguenots, who settled the South, naturally hate, contemn, and despise the Puritans who settled the North. The former are master races—the latter a slave-race, and descendants of the Saxon serfs!

We are the most aristocratic people in the world. Pride of caste, and color, and privilege makes every white man an aristocrat in feeling. Asistocracy is the only safeguard of liberty, the only power watchful and strong enough to exclude monarchical despotism. At the North, the progress and tendency of opinion is to pure democracy, less government, anarchy, and agrarianism. Millitary despotism is far more preferable to Northern democracy, agrarianism, infidelity, and free love.

Our enemies, the stupid, sensual, ignorant masses of the North, who are as foolish as they are depraved, could not read the signs of the times, did not dream of disunion, but rushed on as heedlessly as a greedy drove of hungry hogs, at the call of their owners. They were promised plunder, and find a famine; promised bread, and were given a stone. Our enemies were starving and disorganized. The cold, naked, hungry masses are at war with their leaders. They are mute, paralyzed, panic-stricken, and have no plan of action for the future.

Better, a thousand times better, to come under the dominion of free negroes or of Gypsies, than of Yankees, or low Germans or Canadians. Gypsies and free negroes have many amiable, noble and generous traits; the Yankees, sour-crout Germans, filthy, whiskey-drinking Irish, and Canadians, have none. Senator Wade says, and Seward too, that the North will absorb Canada. They are half true; the vile, sensual, animal, brutal, infidel, superstitious Democracy of Canada and the Yankee States will coalesce; and Sen. Johnson of Tennessee will join them. But when Canada and Western New York, and New England, and the whole beastly, puritanic, "sour-crout," free-negro, filthy, whisky-drinking Irish, infidel, superstitious, licentious, Democratic population of the North become masters of New York—what then? Out of the city, the State of New York is Yankee and puritanical, composed of as base, unprincipled, superstitious, licentious and agrarian and anarchical population as any on earth. Nay, we do not hesitate to say, it is the vilest population on earth.

How Civil War is to be Brought About.

The following thoughtful passages from Harper's Weekly, showing in detail how the success of Seymour and Blair would lead to civil war, is commended to the careful attention of every good citizen:

"How a Democratic success at the election would occasion civil war is easily seen. General Blair does not hesitate to avow it. Congress must be wholly disregarded. The Supreme Court must not be invoked. The President must usurp all powers of the Government and act alone. He must be a Cæsar. 'Because,' says General Blair in his letter, 'if the President elected by the Democracy enforces, or permits others to enforce, these Reconstruction acts, the Radicals, by the accession of 20 spurious Senators and 50 Representatives, will control both branches of Congress, and his administration will be as powerless as the present one of Mr. Johnson.' Force is, therefore, the only alternative.

"If Mr. Seymour be elected after this loud and reiterated declaration by his party that his election will mean forcible overthrow of the present State governments in the Southern States, the result is evident. He would officially declare those governments void. He would then be impeached and probably convicted; but the Democratic party, victorious at the polls, with the whole rebel force jubilant and ready, would dispate the sentence and rise against its execution. Meanwhile, in the Southern States the new Democratic State organizations summoned by the President would be formed. They would dispute the State authority with the present incumbents. The President would recognize the new claimants and order the army to their support, and to 'trample to the dust' the others. They in turn would appeal to Congress, already engaged in conflict with the President. Meanwhile the representatives and senators from the new State organizations would arrive in Washington, and in concert with the other Democratic members would be recognized as Congress by the President. But, indeed, long before this event civil war would be ravaging the country, and Wade Hampton and Robert Toombs, and Howell Cobb, and the old rebel chiefs who say with Albert Pike, 'We do not love and will not pretend to love that Union; though we have agreed to obey the laws of the conqueror,' would gladly behold in a desolating war and a ruined republic the fullness of their revenge.

Gen. Alvin P. Hovey has written a letter from Lima, Peru, to Senator Morton, in which he says:

"Gen. Grant, in my opinion, has made a great sacrifice, in permitting his name to be used in the Presidential canvass, but, in his manly nature, I know he never considers personal advantages when he thinks duty demands his services. No loyal man in Indiana can hesitate one moment in giving his vote for Grant and Colfax over the Democratic nominees. At least 30,000 Indianians have, at various times been placed under my command, and I cannot for a moment entertain the thought that one of these noble men could so far forget the records of the past; their long, dreary, hungry marches; their bloody battles and the fire of the 'Butternuts' in the rear, as to ever cast one vote in favor of their Northern enemies. For myself, I would a thousand times prefer a man who fired bravely at me in the battle, to those who meanly and basely betrayed us in the North.

THE citizen who quietly cast his vote yesterday on the banks of the Penobscot was merely a type of the Americans who are preparing to vote in Pennsylvania, Ohio, snd New York. It is possible he was not altogether pleased with the Republican party. He had heard Pendleton coyly and slyly depreciate the national credit, and was, perhaps, rather in doubt as to whether his greenback was as good as it might have been. He had listened to the insidious sophistry of Cox, as he assured him that Congress had ruined the ship-building, and probably he thought that if the Representatives had been more liberal and progressive, his ax would be busier with the oak and the pine. He may have been vexed with the Temperance issue, and not content with the taxes. He, however, remembered the boy who died at Antietam, and the sacrifices that had been made for Union. He saw in the men who controlled the Democratic party the same Toombs who led Georgia into secession, the same Cobb who made Andersonville worse than the Malebolze of Dante's hell, and held high command over the starving skeletons of his neighbors and kinsmen; the same Hampton who marched an invading army into Pennsylvania, and above all the same Seymour, whose moanings and croakings mingled with every victory, and whose exultations were reserved for the rioters of the Five Points and Mackerelville.—N. Y. Tribune.

The Democratic Record.

In a letter to Senator Morton, dated Lima, Peru, August 22nd, Gen. Alvin P. Hovey, after reviewing the platform of the Republican and Democratic parties, quoted this plank of the New York platform:

"That a soldier and sailor who carried the flag of our country to victory against a most gallant and determined foe, must ever be most gratefully remembered, and all the guarantees given in their favor must be faithfully carried into execution."

He next quoted the following resolutions of the Indiana Democracy during the war, as commentaries thereon:

Carroll County, January 1, 1868.—Opposed to the war and the Emancipation Proclamation.

Brown County, January 1.—In favor of the armistice, compromise, and amnesty to rebels.

Rush County, January 31.—War a murderous sacrifice of men, aud in favor of peace, armistice, etc.

De Kalb County, January 31.—Denounces the war as an unholy crusade to which they will not give one cent, or send one single soldier.

Martin County, January 32.—"We regard the administration at Washington as a usurpation and tyranny, and refuse giving another man or another dollar to the war."

Greene County, February 9, 1863.—Denounce the emancipation proclamation as a palpable usurpation of Executive power, and declare—"that we are not in favor of furnishing the present administration another man, gun or dollar for such a hellish cruisade;" (the war) "that arbitrary arrests, if persisted in, should be resisted by the strong arm of the people."

Allen County, August 3d.—State Rights, Radical:

"That in view of these facts, we declare the proposed draft of 500,000 men the most damnable of all other outrages that have been perpetrated upon the people by the present Administration; and we further declare that the honor, dignity and safety of the people demand that against ruin and enslavement they must afford to themselves the protection which usurpation and tyranny deny them."

To which please add the Free Press,—"fire in the rear."

Gov. Peck.—Calling Michigan soldiers blood-hounds.

Judge Johnson's speech in this city.—I would despise the North if she should submit.

"The South is fighting for that God that gave her the blessing of liberty!"

But the crowning act of all is the great Chicago Convention pronouncing "the war a failure."

A base insult to our soldiers. If all the record proving the Democracy false to the country during the war should be published, a book as large as Webster's Unabridged would fail to contain it.

The Right Sort of Talk.

The following passage from Sen. Wilson's speech in Philadelphia last Saturday night is a true Northern, manly utterance, that will excite a responsive assent in every loyal heart:

"The men who rode to Gettysburg and broke the advancing columns of Lee, have a right to live where they please. They may take their knapsack or their carpet-bag with them. [Applause.] They shall have a right to think their own thoughts and speak their own sentiments, and vote and do as they please, so that they do not interfere with the rights of other people. [Applause.] If Wade Hampton don't like their carpet bag, [applause], if South Carolina is not large enough to hold Wade Hampton and their carpet-bag, then Wade Hampton must get out of South Carolina. [Immense applause.] If anybody has got to leave any of the States, in must be the unrepentant traitor. [Applause.]"

This is the talk, and there ought to be more of it. Until the humblest citizen of the Republic is as safe in all his rights and privileges of the greatest; until a citizen of Michigan can speak his mind in South Carolina as fully and freely as he can in Michigan, and without proscription or insecurity, the fruits of the war will be but half gathered.

The most successful publication of the day—the Democratic campaign picture of "Seymour at Home." It presents Horatio in his most pleasing attitude, and will be subscribed to by a million or two of voters.

The Rochester Chronicle says:

"The mechanics for Grant and Colfax: Some over-confident Seymour man made a bet of $25 that a majority of the mechanics in the Ward building, Water street, were on their side. The vote disclosed a large majority—about two-thirds—for Grant and Colfax. A vote was taken at the Cotton Mills, resulting, for Grant 32 votes; Seymour eight; doubtful, one.

WE want a triumph so great, that it will not merely place Gen. Grant in the White House, but that it will bury for all time to come, beneath an avalanche of popular indignation, the Copperheadism and the treason that has been, and are now, the demoralizing elements in American politics.

What the Government has Done.

The Government has since 1861 raised enough money by taxation and from miscellaneous sources to meet all its ordinary expenses and all the war expenditure, except about $2,800,000,000, this sum having been raised by loans. In other words, nearly three-eights of the national expenses during, and resulting from, the war were paid off at the time of the outlay from the actual income of the Government. This is a fact that has much importance from its bearing upon the question, as to whether the American people have not the ability to fully meet all their obligations in full and without quibbling.

Of the money borrowed during the last seven years, more than one-tenth has been already repaid. On October 31, 1865, the public debt statement footed up $2,808,459,437. The total of the statement for August 1, 1868, was $2,523,534,480, including $32,000,000 of railroad bonds, which are secured by mortgages. The reduction between the dates mentioned has been $285,014,957. A saving in interest is also to be noted, and its amount is now about $15,000,000 annually. These are facts, whose force no amount of Democratic garbling and misrepresentation can break.

Since 1865, not only have all the expenses of the Government been met, and the amount of the public debt been lessened, ut taxation has been greatly reduced and simplified. The taxes abated or discontinued in 1867 and 1868 amount in all to $167,269,000 annually. Moreover in 1865, taxation covered about everything except land, agricultural produce, unmanufactured lumber, breadstuffs and a few other forms of property or product. At least ten thousand distinct articles were then subject to tax. Now, after three years, the internal revenue includes only taxes on spirits, liquors, tobacco, gas, matches, and playing cards; a stamp tax upon perfumery, medicines, and a few other things, and upon written instruments; a reduced tax upon incomes; a license tax; and the tax upon watches, plate, and carriages. We need not add that this simplification has allowed a great reduction to be made in the expensiveness of the machinery of collection.

We call attention to the significance and importance of the foregoing statistics. They speak for themselves.

FROM BELVILLE.

Belville, Oct. 5th, 1868.

In this little town Republicans are few in comparison with their friends over the way, and yet there is a good show for the future. It has not quite the promise to go wholly down under the shame of rebel sympathizing citizens. No man can be overestimated who candidly discharges his duty and sets his countrymen aright in political matters. This village has received benefit from this source on three occasions thus far of the campaign. On the afternoon of Saturday, August 29, the Republicans raised quite a handsome pole 140 feet high. Messrs Cutcheon and Carpet-bag Allen being the speakers. Again on the afternoon and evening of Wednesday, Sept. 28, were held Republican gatherings at the Baptist Church, Messrs McNeal and Ferris being the speakers. Last Saturday evening our hall was filled with citizens of both parties to hear an open, clear, and candid speech from editor Pattison of the Ypsisilanti COMMERCIAL. The speaker seemed to be conscious of the place as was Paul when in open vindication of the truth he dared the infidelity of Rome. He proceeded in the broad argument of the Republican doctrine and entered into a close discrimination between the parties at contest. He exhibited the bright record of the Republican party in the last eight years, the great work it has awarded to the national honor. It was his opinion that the Republican party stood alone able to meet the liabilities of the country, by honest payment of the public debt at the earliest moment possible, landing the nation on the stable and firm rock of specie payments. The question of equal taxation was forcibly argued against, and he showed its practical operation in a very humorous, convincing manner, making our Copperheads feel pretty sober and Republicans laugh heartily. Implements, machinery, wagons, horses, cows, hogs, sheep, chickens etc., come under Democratic taxation policy. Republican policy proposes to exempt the poor and tax the rich. He proposed to stand by the loyal State Governments now existing in some of the late Rebel States, and clearly expressed himself in favor of God fearing integrity to the freedom by right extended to four millions of our formerly enslaved citizens. He closed in an eloquent eulogy to Grant, and of the brightning prospects of the campaign. In contrast to sham Democracy he made palpable the loyalty and imperishable record of the great Union party. He had confidence in the masses of the people to uphold the fundamental principles of Republican Government by the election of Grant & Colfax inaugerating a better and a happier day for our country. Mr. Pattison will be known throughout all his appointments as one eminently out spoken and yet candidly and clearly seting forth the demands of the hour. We trust he will have large audiences. H. B.

The Spanish Revolution Accomplished.

The throne which was the most powerful in Christendom some three centuries ago, is crumbling into ruins under the influence, in part, of Democratic principles of Government emanating from that New World which was discovered with aid furnished by the very empire now toppling to its fall. The Spanish revolution is a success. A long course of adulterous love has effectually alienated from their Queen the loyal affection of the proudest nation on the Continent, and they refuse with almost universal voice to be governed by so notorious a profligate. How deep seated must have been the feeling which, breaking forth with volcanic suddenness, have accomplished their work of subverting a dynasty within less than two weeks. Isabella, forsaken by her most trusted Generals and troops, sees her cause lost, and has sought refuge on the soil of France. What the result will be no amount of prophecy can confirm. We doubt whether the Spanish people are prepared for Republican Institutions. We think they are more likely to break up into factions. A strong, ruling mind however may appear and concentrate and shape the Government in behalf of liberty. We shall see.

The Soldier's are for Grant.

Admiral Foote has come out with an admirable letter for Gen. Grant. Gen. Schofield has also written a handsome letter endorsing Grant. Gens. Sherman, Sheridan, Thomas, Admiral Farragut, all are ardent supporters of Grant and Colfax. At the late re-union here of the 17th, every member present but two are for Grant. One brave soldier on his way here being asked by a couple of canvassers, presented his stump, having lost a leg in the service of his country, saying "How do you think?" For Grant of course.

From Augusta.

Editor Ypsilanti Commercial.

AUGUSTA, Oct. 6, 1868.

DEAR SIR:—The Republicans in our township are wide awake and purpose to do what they can to promote the good cause generally, and elect their fellow townsman to the Senate. We have organized a Grant and Colfax Club and raised several poles—the most splendid one of which was 151 feet above ground, erected on Friday last. There was a large concourse of people present, who were very ably addressed by the Hon. R. E. Trowbridge. Respectfully,

T. DEUEL.

AN OPEN LETTER.

To Messrs D. L. Quirk, I. N. Conkling and F. P. Bogardus:

SIRS:—I might include the other stockholders of our National Bank, but I prefer to address you both from the fact that two of your number are Democrats by profession, and large and influential holders of stock. You are of course familiar with the origin of the National Banking system. In the midst of the mighty struggle for the maintenance of the Government the great pressing need was money.—Our soldiers could not fight without clothing, food and pay. Guns, tents, equipments, powder, shot and shell, must be manufactured and bought.—The fertile brain of the Secretary of the Treasury was well nigh exhausted. He saw that the bankers of the country had some $300,000,000 of circulation, some of it based upon the stocks of States as security, but the most of it without any security whatever. The thought struck him that with a National Banking system, with government bonds as security, he could sell to these bankers $300,000,000 of these United States bonds. The bankers of the country took $300,000,000 of these bonds and issued upon them as a security basis, their bank notes. It is true that many bankers were reluctant at first to do this and came in to the measure slowly. I believe you have some franchises. The interest accruing upon the bonds of course is yours. They are simply placed on deposit with the government as security for your fidelity to the bill holder. A currency is furnished to the people, convenient, safe, uniform, good everywhere—saving to the people if I am not misinformed millions in exchange, and certainly millions from loss by the depreciated or worthless bills of broken banks. These banks pay into the Treasury over $20,000,000 in taxes. For one I have always been an admirer of the system. I agree with Mr. Howard in his speech the other night, that any other system of banking, as safe and convenient, furnishing a currency we can go to sleep on, and more economical to the people, I favor it. If, as the Democratic press and speakers charge, you are cheating the people—engaged in an illegitimate business—then as patriotic citizens and honest men you are in duty bound to abandon it. You are dishonest men. But we do not believe that the Democratic charges are true. When the taxes you pay to the government, the saving to the people by way of exchange and well secured circulation are considered, we believe that the people are gainers. And the people propose to abide by their contract and hold you bankers to the same.

But the Democratic leaders propose to take up the bonds you have bought and replace the same by greenbacks bearing no interest. Certainly a very plausible proposition upon the face of it. If the people can make anything by it and you will consent to permit the Government to violate its part of the contract, I for one say amen. But the question occurs to me where are the $300,000,000 of greenbacks coming from? If just now, they are to be taxed out of the pockets of the people, I most decidedly object.—If they are to be a new issue then I object. For I dont propose to repudiate the National bank bill in my pocket or place you in a position to repudiate and cheat me out of all security for its redemption. As honest men are you willing to depreciate and in fact destroy your circulation—cheat the people and ruin your own credit?

Every Democratic financial dodge in this campaign means repudiation of the National debt, repudiation of the National contracts, repudiation of the National honor. The 3d of November is to decide whether we are a nation of scoundrels or honest men.

Yours, truly,

C. R. PATTISON.

Connecticut.

That "great whelming tide" still runs heavily against Seymour. The Republicans gain handsomely. In New Haven alone the Democrats run behind from last year 1,336 votes. It looks as if Connecticut was good for Grant by 5,000 majority.

We do not wish to inform you reader, that Dr. Wonderful, or any other man, has discovered a remedy that cures Consumption, when the lungs are half consumed, in short, will cure all diseases whether of mind body or estate, will make men live forever, and leave death to play for want of work, and is designed to make our sublunary sphere a blissful paradise, to which Heaven itself shall be but a side show. You have enough of that kind of humbuggery, and we do not wonder that you have by this time become disgusted with it. But when we tell you that Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy will positively cure the worst cases of Catarrh, we only assert that which thousands can testify to. Try it and you will be convinced. We will pay $500 Reward for a case of Catarrh that we cannot cure.

WOMAN.—FEMALES, OWING TO THE PECULIAR and important relations which they sustain, their peculiar organization, and the offices they perform, are subject to many sufferings. Freedom from these contribute in no small degree to their happiness and welfare, for none can be happy who are ill. Not only so, but no one of these various female complaints can long be suffered to run on without involving the general health of the individual, and ere long producing permanent sickness and premature decline. nor is it pleasant to consult a physician for the relief of these various delicate affections, and only upon the most urgent necessity will a true woman so far sacrifice her greatest charm as to do this. The sex will then thank us for placing in their hands simple specifics which will be found efficacious in relieving and curing almost every one of these troubles some complaints peculiar to the sex.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT OF BUCHU.—Hundreds suffer on in silence, and hundreds of others apply vainly to druggists and doctors who merely tantalize them with the hope of a cure or apply remedies which make them worse. I would not wish to assert anything that would do injustice to the afflicted, but I am obliged to say that although it may be produced from excessive exhaustion of the powers of life, by laborious employment unwholsome air and food, profuse menstruation, the use of tea and coffee, and frequent childbirth, it is far oftener caused by direct irritation, applied to the mocus membrane of the vagina itself.

When reviewing the causes of these distressing complaints, it is most painful to contemplate the attendent evils consequent upon them. It is but simple justice to the subject to enumerate a few of the many additional causes which so largely affect the life, health, and happiness of woman in all classes of society, and which, consequently, affect more or less directly, the welfare of the entire human family. The mania that exists for precocious education and marriage, causes the years that nature deignated for corporeal development to be wasted and perverted in the restraints of dress, the early confinement of school, and especially in the unhealthy excitement of the ball-room. Thus, with the body half clothed, and the mind unduly excited by pleasure, perverted in midnight revel the hours designated by nature for sleep and rest, the work of distruction is half accomplished.

In consequence of this early strain upon system, unnecessary effort is required by the delicate votary to retain her situation in school at a later day, thus agravating the evil. When one excitement is over, another in prospective keeps the mind morbidly sensative to impression, while the now constant restraint of fashionable dress, absolutly forbiding the exercise indispensible to the attainment and retention of organic health and strenght; the exposure to night air; the sudden change of temperature; the complete prostatation produced by excessive dancing must, of necessity produce their legitimate effect. At last, an early mariage caps the climax of misery, and the unfortunate one, hitherto so utterly regardless of the plain dictates and remonstrances of her delicate nature, becomes an unwilling subject of medical treatment. This is but a truthful picture of the experience of thousands of our young women.

Long before the ability to exercise the function of the generative organs, they require an education of their peculiar nervous system, composed of what is called the tissue, which is, in common with the female breast and lips, evidently under the control of mental emotions and associations at an early period of life; and, as we shall subsequently see, these emotions, when excessive, lead long before puberity, to habits which sap the very life out of their victims ere nature has self-completed their development.

For Female Weekness and Debility, Whites or Leucorrhœa, Too Profuse Menstruation, Exhaustion, Too Long Continued Periods, for Prolapsus and Bearing Down, or Prolapsus Uteri, we offer the most perfect specific known: HELMBOLD'S COMPOUND EXTRACT OF BUCHU. Directions for use, diet, and advice, accompany.

Females in every period of life, from infancy to extreme old age, will find it a remedy to aid nature in the discharge of its functions. Strenght is the glory of manhood and womanhood. HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU is more strenghtening than any of the preparations of Bark or Iron, infinitely safer, and more pleasant. HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU, having received the indorsement of the most prominent physicians in the United States, is now offered to afflicted humanity as a certain cure for the following diseases and symtoms, from whatever cause originating: General Debility, Mental and Physical Depression, Imbecility Determination of Blood to the Head, Confused Ideas, Hysteria, General Irritability, Restlessness and Sleeplessness at night, Absence of Muscular Efficiency, Loss of Appetite, Dyspepsia, Emaciation, Low Spirits, Disorganization or Paralysis of the Organs of Generation, Palpitation of the Heart, and, in fact, all the concomitants of a Nervous and Debilitated state of the system. To insure the genuine cut this out. Ask for HELMBOLD'S. Take no other. Sold by druggists and Dealers everywhere. Price $1.25 per bottle, or 6 bottles for $6,50, delivered to any address. Describe symtoms in communications. Address H. T. HELMBOLD, Drug and Chemical Warehouse, 594 Broadway, N. Y.

None are genuine unless done up in steel engraved wrapper, with fac-simile of my Chemical Warehouse, and signed

Hon. R. E. Trowbridge, Member of Congress, and Capt. E. P. Allen will address the people.

HON. WM. A. HOWARD AT HEWITT Hall. The Hall was filled. The Tanners were out, and made a fine appearance. The Grant and Colfax Glee Club, gave a couple of their most stirring songs. The speech of Mr. Howard was a valuable historical one replete with telling facts, logic and wit, carrying conviction to every mind open to conviction. Before 30 Suns will rise and set, the most majestic sight ever witnessed on this continent will transpire Over 6.000,000 of people will gather, from hill top, dell and plain and declare who shall be their ruler. While we should be chary of over condemnation of individuals, we have a right to canvass the claims of parties and individuals who by their position become public property. The question is not as to the patriotism of the entire masses in a party, but what are the leading purposes, the animus of a party, antecedents and record. Not what the party promises just prior to an election, but what has it done? He rendered a noble tribute to the Republican party, for breaking down land monopoly, giving free homes in our western domain to the landless poor, for performing that greatest work of the Centuries, Emancipating 4,000,000 of bond-men, carrying through the war for the preservation of the Union, against the combined traitors of the south and their sypathyzing allies of the north. He gave a searching analysis of the Democratic papty for the last 14 years, always on the wrong side of every public question, snarling and growling at those who with all their might and soul, were laboring to preserve this glorious heritage of our fathers. The Democracy apposed free labor, opposed emancipation—opposed the war—opposed the draft—opposed every plan to raise money for prosecuting it. Their war record will never be forgotten by the American people. Their late N. Y. platform is a bubble of inconsistencies, a disgrace to any party. He brought Horatio Seymour on to the stand, and made him appear in a most rediculous light. From his own mouth in a speech made at Cooper Institute, not ten days before the Convention he made him testify in unmeasured terms against the very platform upon which he stands, a truly dishonored man. He riddled, the idea of taxing the bonds, showing how thoroughly it would effect the public credit and the payment of the debt in greenbacks, so thoroughly ruin us, that like Samson of old we should be completely at the mercy of traitors, or any body who come to attack us. Dividing the Democratic party into rebels, copperheads and loyal men he averred that the rebels and Copperheads combined, controlled the N. Y. convention, platform and nominations. The loyal men in the party are powerless, many of these men have already joined the Republican party. We find their representatives in such men as Gen. Dix, Grant, Sherman, Sheridan, and Logan. It is the duty of the Republican party to give the Democratic party such an overwhelming drubbing in November, that the loyal element will be ashamed of their company, and either join the Republecans, or enter into some new loyal combination, and come before the people under another name, while the disloyal element shall evermore be dumb.

The election of Grant secures peace We shall have no more of the Ku-Klux-Klan outrages. The rebel power will forever be broken. Every American will be free to tread on every inch of American soil, and freely without leave or hindrance proclaim his opinions. Three hearty cheers were given for Mr. Howard and three more for Grant, Colfax and Victory.

THE BAPTIST STATE CONVENTION is in session in this city, composed of delegates from all the Churches and Associations in the State. About 150 Pastors of churches and other Ministers are present. Wednesday the Ministerial Conference met and had a very interesting session. The topics for discussion were pertinent and instructive. Thursday there was a session of the Board of the Convention, having more immediate charge of Home Missions and the Educational interests of the denomination. Thursday evening, President Brooks, of Kalamazoo College, gave a fine address on Ministerial Education and enforcing the imperitive necessity of supporting needy young men preparing for the ministry.—Some very feeling and effective remarks were made by Revs. Messrs. Haskell, Pierce, Dunbar and Snyder. A collection of nearly $230 was taken up. Friday morning the Convention proper convened, sermon by Rev. N. A. Reed, of Grand Rapids. Rev. Mr. Bronson, Missionary to Assam, is here. Rev. Dr. Osgood, of Chicago, Rev. Mr. Church, of the Standard, Rev. Dr. Haskell, of Kalamazoo, and other prominent clergymen. The pulpits of the city to-morrow will be supplied by our best pulpit preachers from abroad.

CANTON, Oct. 5th, 1868.

To the Editor of the Commercial.

Dear Sir—

In order to let the people know, that the Republicans of Canton and Superior, are in earnest and determined not to let the Rebels rule. I would say, that they are holding meetings every week, at Cherry Hill. We had one on Saturday last, Chas. Holmes of your city, addressed on audiance of thinking men, telling some plain truths, which made the Democratic part of the house feel very uneasy. Although Canton is strongly Democratic, there are hopes of showing them this fall, that the people know their record.

Yours Truly,

K. F. H.

POLITICAL DISCUSSIONS.

BETWEEN

MESSRS. NORRIS AND CHILDS.

CORRESPONDENCE.

YPSILANTI, Aug. 22d, 1868.

Hon. J. Webster Childs.—

DEAR SIR:—The County Convention of our respective parties have honored us with nominations for State Senator. We are both known as talking men, and given to defending our political faith before the people. They desire to hear and know the truth, and to that end I should be pleased to meet you, in joint discussion (in the principal towns of Washtenaw, some time in the month of October next) of the platforms of the political parties which in our small way we represent.

If you should accept, the details to be settled by the Chairman of our respective County Committees.

I can assure you a respectful hearing on the part of the Democracy of old Washtenaw.

I remain, in the hope of a favorable reply,

Yours with regard,

(Signed) LYMAN D. NORRIS.

YPSILANTI, Sept. 12th, 1868.

Hon. Lyman D. Norris,—

DEAR SIR:— Yours of Aug. 22d was duly received. I should have answered earlier.

I would say that the joint discussion you propose will be agreable to me, with one proviso, that is, I should not wish to have it confined to the platforms of the parties entirely, but embrace the past record of the parties, and their present position and character, as shown by the record and position of their leaders, and the views now taken by their leading organs. In such a discussion I should be pleasod to join you as proposed.

Yours truly,

J. WEBSTER CHILDS.

In accordance with the terms of the above correspondence, Messrs NORRIS and CHILDS, Democratic and Republican candidates for Senator will discuss the political issues of the campaign, at the places and times as follows:

At MANCHESTER, Friday, October 16th, at 1 o'clock P. M., in Goodyear's Hall.

At SALINE, Saturday, October 17th, at 1 o'clock P. M.

At CHELSIA, Tuesday, October 20th, at 1 o'clock P. M.

At WEBSTER, Town House, Wednesday, October 21st, at 1 o'clock P. M.

At PITTSFIELD, Town House, Saturday, October 24th, at 1 o'clock P. M.

At AUGUSTA, Town House, Tuesday, October 27th, at 1 o'clock P. M.

At SALEM, Peeble's Church, Wednesday, October 28th, at 1 o'clock P. M.

At ANN ARBOR, Thursday, October 29th, at 7 o.clock P. M., at the Court House.

At YPSILANTI, Hewitt's Hall, Saturday October 31st, at 7 o'clock P. M.

The speakers will determine by lot which shall open the first debate, and shall alternate in openining successive debates.

The opening speaker will speak one hour, and close with a half hour. His opponent to have 1½ hours between.

At each meeting two Chairmen will be chosen, one by the political friends of each speaker.

☞ Local Committees are requested to provide a suitable hall or room where convenient or stand if the meeting must be held out door.

Ann Arbor, Sept. 28th, 1868.

New York, July 1st, 1868.

DEAR SIR:—In your paper of last week your or one of your correspondents say that Dr. Drake is not the originator of the celebrated Plantation Bitters, and that they were manufactured and sold by one Pedro Martelle, an old Spaniard, in the island of St. Thomas, over forty years ago, as every old sea captain can testify. Now, sir, I can certify to the above as being true, for I have followed the sea for over forty years, most of the time doing business with the West Indies. These same Bitters differently put up and named, were brought to my notice on my first trip to the Island of St. Croix for a cargo of rum, and for years and years after, my ship's stores were never without them. I always supplied my family and many of my neighbors with them, and can truly say a better Bitters and Tonic, is not made in the world.

Yours truly,

CAPT. HENRY WENTZ.

MISS FLORENCE A. RICE.—Don't forget the Benefit Concert next Tuesday evening, at Hewitt Hall. It promises to be the most entertaining of the season.

MEETING HOUSE REPAIRS. — The Baptist Church of this city has been newly roofed, newly painted, papered in handsome style on the inside, ceiling whitewashed and really looks better than new.

"Onward, right onward,
Into the Valley of Death,
Rode the Six Hundred."

But larger, by hundreds multiplied into millions, than the doomed band who rode to swift destruction in Tennyson's poem, is the great cavalcade of unhappy men who are rushing to untimely graves, followed by the gaunt spectre dyspepsia. This is all wrong, and should cease. Plantation Bitters, the great stomachic pain killer, cures dyspepsia, heartburn, headache, vertigo, dullness, and all symptoms of kindred character, as if by magic. For languor, lassitude, great weakness and mental depression, they have a most wonderful effect.

WOMAN'S JOURNAL OF HEALTH.—The Laws of Life for October is on our table. It is a sterling Journal full of all good things. Every woman in the land should read it. The instructions, from month to month, its columns contain, with reference to diet, and proper dress for children and adults, also for the treatment of diseases, are invaluable. No person can carefully read its pages, for any length of time, without great benefit. Its editor is Harriet N. Austin, M. D., widely known for her abilities as a writer, and physician. We advise our readers to subscribe for it. Specimen copies are sent free to any who apply to the publishers,

For a Cure of all Throat and Lung Diseases

Is a thin, transparent, oily fluid, extracted by chemical processes from purified juices of the Olive and Pine. The magnetic or concentrated curative power existing in Stafford's Olive Tar renders it an instantaneous and efficient Specific for

BRONCHITIS, COUGHS, ASTHMA, CROUP, WHOOPING COUGH, AND ALL FORMS OF CONSUMPTION, WHEN IT IS TAKEN, APPLIED, OR INHALED.

RHEUMATIC and NEURALGIC, or any other EXTERNAL PAINS cease when OLIVE TAR is applied.

The astonishing success which has attended the use of Olive Tar, when its healing qualities are brought in contact with the Throat and Bronchial Tubes, and all the air cells of the Lungs, unquestionably proves it to be a Specific for all Pulmonary Diseases.

Below are a few of the many distinguished gentlemen who use and recommend the Olive Tar:

THE CURATIVE BALSAM is Warranted, if used according to Directions, to cure or relieve in all cases, Coughs, Colds, Croup, Whooping Cough, Asthma, and all affections of the Throat and Lungs.

Madame ZADOC PORTER'S BALSAM is a purely Vegetable Expectorant, prepared with great care and scientific skill, from a combination of the best remedies the vegetable kingdom affords.

Its remedial quantities, are based on its power to assist the healthy and vigorous circulation of the Blood through the Lungss

It enlivens the muscles and assists the skin to perform the duties of regulating the heat of the system, and in gently throwing off the waste substance from the surface of the body.

It loosens the phlegm, induces free spitting, and will be found VERY AGREEABLE TO THE TASTE. It is not a violent remedy, but emollient, warming, searching and effective; and can be taken by the oldest person or youngest child.

If you have a Cold, if ever so slight, do not fail to give the Balsam a trial, as the very low price at which it is sold brings it within the reach of every one, that they may always keep it convenient for use. The timely use of a 25 cent bottle will often prove it to be worth a hundred times its cost.

The 75 cent bottle is more profitable to the consumer, as it contains four times the quantity contained in the small bottle.

Vallandigham's Treason—A Damning Proof.

The Dayton O., Journal of Sept. 24, contains a letter from Vallandigham, written to Col. D. D. Ishnull, Eighth Ala. Vols., which was captured among the baggage of that officer during a reconnoisance on Sept. 1, 1863, by James Flynn West, Company A. 19th Ohio Vols., and a copy of which he inclosed to his brother. The original was sent to headquarters. The letter is as follows:

"DEAR COLONEL—Your kind note and invitation of yesterday was this morning handed me by your brother-in-law, who will hand you this in return. It would give me much pleasure to visit you and your command before leaving the Confederation, but it is now impossible to do so, as I have made arrangements to start this A. M. with the earliest train for Wilmington.

You surmise correctly, when you say that you believe me to be the friend of the South in her struggle for freedom. My feelings have been publicly expressad in my own country, in that quotation from Lord Chatham, 'My Lords, you can not conquer America!' There is not a drop of Puritan blood in my veins. I hate, despise and defy the tyrannical government which has sent me among you for my opinion's sake, and shall never give it my support in its crusade upon your institutions. But you are mistaken when you say there are but few such in the United States, North. Thousands are there who would speak out but for the military despotism that strangles them.

Although the contest has been, and will continue to be a bloody one, you have but to persevere and the victory will be yours. You must strike home! The defensive policy lengthens the contest. The shortest road to peace is the boldest one. You can have your own terms by gaining the battle on your enemy's soil.

Accept my kind regards for your personal welfare, and sincere thanks for your kind wishes in my behalf; and hoping and praying for the ultimate success of the cause in which you are fighting, believe me, as ever your friend,

C. L. VALLANDIGHAM.

Col. D. D. Ishnall, Eighth Ala. Vols."

And this traitor is a Democratic candidate for Congress from Ohio.

Short Catechism of Negro Equality.

We invite the attention of modern Democrats to the following questions and answers. Study and reflect, ye degenerate:

Who said that all men are created equal? Thomas Jefferson the father of the Democracy.

Who gave the Negroes the right of suffrage in New York? The Democratic party.

Who presided over the Convention that gave this privilege to Negroes? Martin Van Buren a Democrat.

Who afterward elected Martin Van Buren to the Preidency of the United States? The Democratic party.

Who married a Negro woman, and by her had mulatto children? Richard M. Johnson, a good Democrat.

Who elected Richard M. Johnson Vice President of the United States? The Democratic party.

If President Van Buren had died, and Richard M. Johnson had become President of the United States, who would have become the Democratic mistress of the White House? The same Negro woman.

Who made the Negro a citizen of the State of Maine? The Democratic party.

Who enacted a similar law in Massachusetts? The same party.

Who gave the Negro a right to vote in New Hampshire? The Democratic party.

Who permitted every colored person owning $250 in New York, to become a voter? A General Assembly, purely Democratic.

Who repealed the laws of Ohio, which required Negroes to give bonds and security before settling in that State? The Democratic party.

Who made mulattoes legal voters in Ohio? A Democratic Supreme Court of which Reuben Wood was Chief Justice.

What became of Reuben Wood? The Democrat'c party elected him Governor three times.

Who helped to give free negroes the right to vote in Tennessee, under the Constitution of 1795? General Jackson.

Was Gen. Jackson a good Democrat? He was generally passed as such.

Who with the above facts, and many others staring them in the face, are continually whinning about Negro suffrage and Negro equality? The Democratic party.

Three Planks in the Democratic Platform.

To the Editor of the Advertiser and Tribune.

In a little village, not far off, the Republicans met to establish a Grant & Colfan Club, and to raise a pole, and, after the canvass was sent to the breeze, with U. S. Grant and S. Colfax on it, a young captain, who was through the war, was called to the stand, who gave a thrilling address, and, in the close up, he rubbed hard on the side of the Democratic platform, and, after the speaker got through, he gave an invitation to any one to speak, when an old Democrat came forward and said: "Mr. speaker you seem to be very familiar with the Democratic platform. I should be very much pleased to have you repeat it." To which the speaker said: I do not pretend to say I know the whole of it, but I know three planks of it, I learned them of the Democrats of the South and I find the Democrats all know them in the North. The first is 'Damn the Negro;' the second is 'God Damn the Negro;' the third is 'God Damn the God Damn Negro;' and so it goes on clear through.

The house was in a roar of laughter, and the old Democrat right-about-faced and walked out as if he had business with some one out of door.

BEING governed by Democrats is an expensive luxury. It costs New York city $20,000,000 a year.

Amalgamation in Arkansas.

The Democrats of Arkansas have succeeded in conquering their prejudices. Who can say but they will, before very long, allow their daughters to marry negroes? Those who manage the Democratic politics of Helena, in that State have issued the following circular:

BARBECCUE AT LAGRANGE.

Thursday, Aug. 13, 1868.

COME ONE! COME ALL!! BOTH WHITE & BLACK!!

As the infamous lie is in circulation that the meats for colored persons will be poisoned, we nail that Radical trick to the counter by offering CHOICE of TABLES to our colored friends, or we will divide places with them.

COMMITTEE.

Helena, Aug. 10.

WE call upon every citizen who wore the blue, whether on land or sea, to cast his vote in the coming election for the Union State tickets, and for Grant and Colfox; and, further, to mark alike the sincerity and efficiency of our solemn declaration. We invoke our late comrades in arms to set apart the election day as a period of unremitting exertion and increasing vigilance, and we hereby formally announce that on the 13th day of October, in the States of Pennsylvania, Ohio and Nebraska there shall be observed among our comrades a general holiday, and we call upon employers, manufacturers, and business men generally to relieve their workmen on that day, who have served in the Union army, and thus assist in completing this patriotic purpose. The victory of the 13th of October will be Sheridan's victory of Five Forks, marshalling the way to Grant's transcendant triumph on the Appomattox in November.—Gen. Burnside.

WE know from his own statements, that Gov. Seymour never loaned a dollar to the Government, never owned one of its bonds, although its very existence for a time seemed to depend on the sale of these bonds. The following extract from a speech delivered by him in Philadelphia, in 1864, may possibly explain the matter:

"The bonds of the United States have sold for but 40 cents on the dollar in Germany, while bonds of the Confederate States have sold there for 60 cents on a dollar. And why? Because the Confederate Government, whenever it has issued new bonds, has fortified them with tangible securities, WHILE WE GAVE NO SECURITY BUT OUR PROMISES."

Gov. Seymour preferred Confederate bonds, deeming their security the better. Possibly he invested in them and had no money to spare for Federal securities. "Where the heart is there will the treasure be also."

THE GREAT EARTHQUAKE—FIVE HUNDRED MUMMIES RESURRECTED.—A Lima, Peru, correspondent of the N. Y. Times relates the following singular result of the earthquake at Arica, giving Gen. Kilpatrick as his authority. He says: As the earth opened and yawned, there came 500 mummies, who stand in long lines facing the sea, every one of the skeletons in perfect preservation, the hands doubled up and supporting the chin, the knees drawn up, and the feet supporting the fleshless body! This must be one of the most frightful sights possible, and quite beyond description. The spot where these mummies now stand was once an old cemetery, some ninety years ago, it is said, and these skeletons are doubtless the fabled Incas and Indi n, who either buried themselves alive or were interred in this manner. They correspond exactly to the old mummies of the Incas, which I described in a former letter as among the curiosities to be seen in the museum at Lima. As the ground receded, what a ghastly spectacle, amid the throes of an earthquake, the coming up again to earth of these long-buried skeleton remains. Five hundred ghostly mummies! * * In Tambo, a priest, or padre, as he is called, told the affrighted people not to flee to the hills. He would go down to the sea, and he had power to still the waters. The foolish people, 500 in number, believing in his omnipotence, gathered around him in solemn procession, and followed him to the sea; but the voice of a man, who took upon himself the attributes of the Almighty, was not heeded, and himself and 500 with him were drowned.

THE iniquities of our tax system, which heaps burdens upon the poor and leaves the rich to go free, were exemplified in the case of the late Mr. Edwin A. Stevens. Being a millionaire and a bloated bondholder, he was of course almost wholly untaxed. It only cost $5,000 for Government stamps for instance, to have his will admitted to probate.

IN a speech at Hamilton, Oh'o, a few days ago, Gen. Van Derveer, an old Democrat who cannot support Valandingham, pithily said: "They tell us that the freedman is incapable of exercising the right of suffrage, but he is just as capable as the Democrat who votes that ticket simply because his father was a Democrat."

HENRY A. WISE, says, "He cared nothing for the platform It was a 'tub thrown to the whale.' He acknowledged that slavery was dead, but that secession was not dead. He accepted the ticket because Frank P. Blair, who had said what he did about setting up military over civil authority, had been put upon it."

BRICK Pomeroy is lecturing on temperance in New York. His deserted and abandoned wife and child are staying with her parents in Milwaukee.—Janesville Gazette.

"Whenever a Democrat sets up the claim that Seymour was loyal during the war ask him who made it necessary to withdraw an army from the front to suppress his riots in the rear?"

THE greatest principle of the Republican party is universal freedom to universal man, and such a principle was never before declared by a political party.

25 cts. for the COMMERCIAL from now until the glorious shouts are heard Nov. 3d.

HOWELL COBB, secretary of the Treasury, went into the New York market with United States bonds, and after announcing that the Government had been overthrown, asked to borrow money on them. The credit of the United Srtes had been unrivalled, but the Democratic party ruined it.

EVERYTHING the country hopes for must come from the principles of the Union party; under those principles its greatness founded. We were great in the time of the Revolution, but we are grand in these days, and the eyes of European nations are turned upon the United States with admiration.

No race can be safely entrusted with the happiness and control of the rights and property of another race.

To Mr. E. J. Mills, Mr. J. H. Pease, & others.

Gentlemen:—Your invitation has been received, and in reply I would say, that it will give me sincere pleasure to accept it.

The evening of the 13th of Oct., at Hewitt Hall will be convenient to me, as the time and place of the proposed concert.

Accept my thanks gentlemen for your courtesy, and believe that I shall be very happy to meet my friends at Ypsilanti

A Positive Remedy for all kinds of Humors,

Scrofula, Scurvy, Salt-Rheum, Carbuncles and Boils, Ulcers and all obstinate Affections of the Skin, Inflammatory or Chronic Rheumatism, Piles, Chronic Diarrhœa, Mercurial Diseases, and every taint of the System; Dyspepsia, and those Affections originating in the Derangement of the Digestive Organs; viz., Bilious Complaints, Neuralgia, and Nervous Affections, Headache, Languor, and Depression of Spirits, Loss of Appetite, Constipation.

THIS excellent medicinal compound was first prepared by Dr. J. W. POLAND, in 1847, and was then employed with great success in expelling humors from the blood; but in 1848 a medical friend who was quite celebrated as a physician, especially in the treatment of humors, suggested some important improvements, which were adopted, and which has made it (so the people say) the very best remedy for all kinds of humors known to "the faculty."

This preparation is composed entirely of vegetables, among which are Sarsaparilla, Yellow Dock, Noble Pine, Mandrake, and Bloodroot.

When the originator lived in New Hampshire, at Goffstown Centre, for the space of thirty or forty miles around, and in Manchester particularly, the Humor Doctor was well known and highly valued for the numerous and wonderful cures which it effected. Though manufactured in large quantities, the supply was frequently exhausted, and purchasers had to wait for more to be made. In that region, some very severe cases of Erysipelas were treated with,—and they were cured! Erysipelas sores, or carbuncles,—those ugly, painful ulcers,—were entirely removed wherever this medicine was faithfully used. So it was with Scrofula and Salt-Rheum. The Humor Doctor cured them.

It is free from any dangerous drugs, is pleasant to the taste, safe, yet sure and effective in its action.

The American Cooking Stove In Court.

At an adjourned term of the Circuit Court of the United States, for the Northern District of New York, in the second circuit held at the City Hall, in the city of Albany, the 28th day of January, in the year of our Lord 1868.

PRESENT:

The Honorable Nathan K. Hall, Judge.

J. H. Shear & J. Packard, vs. G. B. Bull & J. M. Rockwell, } In Equity.

It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed, that a perpetual injunction be issued in this suit against the defendants, restraining them from further infringements of said Patent, No. 51,406, dated Dec. 5th, 1865, for improvements in cooking stoves, pursuant to and in accordance with the prayer of the Bill of Complaint.

Signed A. A. BOYCE, Clerk.

The above suit was instituted for infringement of the Patent securing the manner of fitting the ash pan in the hearth of the American Cooking Stove, and for the combination of the bailed ash pan. We have repeatedly cautioned the public against selling or using stoves with these improvements not manufactured by us. All persons now selling or using stoves with these improvements in violation of the above injunction, without license from us, will be liable to fine and imprisonment.

Manhood—How Lost, How Restored.

JUST PUBLISHED, A NEW EDITION OF

DR. CULVERWE'S

Celebrated Essay

On the Radical Cure [without medicine] of Spermatorrhœa, or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, Impotency, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, etc.; also Consumption, Epilepsy, and Fits, induced by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance.

Price, in a sealed envelope, only 6 cents.

The celebrated Author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of Self-Abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife—pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.

This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land.

Sent, under seal, in a plain envelope, to any address, post paid, on receipt of six cents, or two postage stamps.

THE GREAT ENGLISH REMEDY

Sir James Clarke's Female Pills.

Prepared from a prescription of Sir James Clarke, M. D., Physician Extraordinary to the Queen.

This invaluable medicine is unfailing in the cure of all those painful and dangerous diseases to which the female constitution is subject. It moderates all excesses and removes all obstructions, from whatever cause.

TO MARRIED LADIES

It is particularly suited. It will, in a short time, bring on the monthly period with regularity, and although very powerful, contains nothing hurtful to the constitution. In all cases of Nervous and Spinal Affections, Pains in the Back and Limbs, Fatigue on slight exertion, Palpitation of the Heart, Hysterics and Whites, it will effect a cure when all other means have failed. The pamphlet around each package has full directions and advice, or will be sent free to all writing for it, sealed from all observation.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

Sir James Clarke's Female Pills are extensively Counterfeited. The genuine have the ame of "JOB MOSES" on each package. ll others are worthless.

N. B.—One Dollar, with fifteen cents for postage, enclosed to the sole proprietor, JOB MOSES, 27 Cortlandt Street, New York, will insure a bottle of the genuine, containing Fifty Pills, by return mail, securely sealed from any knowledge of its contents. 224-1y.
